January	0	N/A
Yearly Total= 2

042-19C – Residence Inn: Bed bugs while staying at Building 2, room 2304. Spoke with manager and show video to hotel manager. Kept a copy of video.

RP visited on 3/28/19 and spoke to general manager Patrick Welton. He and his chief engineer examined room; moved guest to a new room and had EcoLab inspect the room as well. Corporate has standard operating procedures for bed bug issues. Exterminator did not find bedbugs. Sprayed for spiders. General manager will forward invoice from EcoLab. No further action required.

Follow up from previous complaint

030-19C – Perrin Place: Saddle River Police Department reports responding to Perrin Place for reports of an odor of marijuana. Resident provided medical marijuana card. Returned complainants call and advised to proceed with homeowner’s association as residence is a townhouse owned by resident.

PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING

Saddle River Clinic:

Blood Pressure Clinic was held on March 19. Very little attendance. Only one patient was evaluated. Vital signs within normal limits. I asked the clerk for possible reason for low attendance since the clinic is typically well attended by the employees. No specific reason given.

School Audit:

Wandell Elementary School was also audited on March 19.

Compliance Rate for Preschool - 100%

Compliance Rate for Kindergarten - 94%. One student needs the second dose of MMR vaccine (Measles, Mumps & Rubella). Nurse will be following up with the child's parents to schedule the vaccine appointment.
